Renner Gallery is pleased to present the San Francisco artist Mark Jenkins in an exhibition of photographic works fusing reality and illusion into classical figurative images of beauty and mysticism.

Jenkins combines a traditional photographic approach with computer modeling and synthesized environments to achieve a masterful image of composition and montage. While his coloration evokes the warmth of hand-pulled platinum prints, Jenkins' lighting style and printing technique produces a distinctive “glow” to his works, enhancing a wide range of images of figurative, botanical and floral, architectural, and portrait subjects.

Jenkins graduated from the Tyler School of Art in Philadelphia studying photography, design and painting. He has had works published in the book “Self-Exposure” (Universe/Rizzoli 2005), and “(Not Only) Blue” magazine from Sydney. His travels to Italy profoundly influenced his approach to his art.

This is the first solo exhibition of this emerging San Francisco artist.

Mark Jenkins is represented exclusively by Renner Gallery.
